The Supplier shall without prejudice to any other remedies available to it be entitled to charge interest on the amount outstanding calculated from the date payment is due until the date payment is made on the amount outstanding from time to time at the interest rate prescribed by reference to the Penalty Interest Rates Act.
- b. In the event where the customer fails to pay the whole amount due within seven (7) days of being so requested to do so by the Supplier in writing, then the Supplier shall be at liberty to instruct a collection agency and/or solicitors to recover the monies outstanding and the customer shall be liable for any costs, charges, commissions and expenses reasonably and properly payable by the Supplier to such Collection Agency and/or solicitors relating to the recovery of the sum.
- c. Any monies recoverable by the Supplier from the Customer pursuant to sub-clauses (a) and (b) shall be added to the amount otherwise due and shall be recoverable as a liquidated debt.
